

OUR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE
SATURDAY APRIL 21, 2018
FEATURING FATHER RICHARD ROHR
9:00 AM—3:30 PM
Registration: 8:00—9:00 AM
Arvada Center for the Arts and Humanities
6901 Wadsworth Blvd., Arvada, CO 80003

ANOTHER NAME FOR EVERYTHING: THE UNIVERSAL CHRIST

Most Christians think that Christ is Jesus' last name. We extracted Christ from the Trinity and tried to make Jesus stand alone and apart as God. This made us into a competitive religion instead of a universal religion. If we do not rebuild Christianity on a Trinitarian foundation, we will continue to lose much of the dynamism, universal meaning and creation based character of the Christian revelation. Come hear the Scriptural, Patristic, and very traditional basis for our orthodox belief in a Cosmic notion of Christ, as Fr. Richard Rohr gives us a summary of his upcoming book on this lost but central doctrine. You will be proud and happy to be a Christian!

Richard Rohr, O.F.M. is a Franciscan friar ordained to the priesthood in the Roman Catholic Church in 1970. He is a globally recognized Catholic and ecumenical Christian teacher focusing on mystical and transformational traditions and is the founder and director of the Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He is also the author of more than twenty books.

The event will include coffee and rolls in the morning and a cold luncheon plate. All lunches are gluten free (except for bread on the table). Please choose between spinach salad with chicken, salpicon salad with beef, or salpicon vegetarian salad.

We encourage you to register early as seating is limited to 500 people. Payment must accompany registration and is non-refundable after April 5. You can:
